

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 15, 2008

Winners of SJAA's Fishing Rod & Reel Raffle Announced

Press Contact:

Jeanne Covert
Public Relations Specialist
856-285-4055
jeannec@sjaids.org

Administrative Offices:

19 Gordon's Alley
Atlantic City, NJ 08401
Ph. (609) 3347-1085
Fax (609) 348-8775

Program Centers:

Atlantic City, Wildwood,
Millville, Bridgeton and Vineland, NJ

MILLVILLE, NJ— The names of the two lucky winners of the South Jersey AIDS Alliance's Fishing Rod & Reel Raffle were announced during a drawing on Sunday, September 14, 2008 at the South Jersey Sportsmen's Jamboree in Maurice River Township, NJ.

Mike Plunkett of Woodbury, NJ, won the first prize—a 7' G-Loomis, model GLX spinning rod ($385.00 value) and an Okuma, V-series, V55 spinning reel ($159.99)—total value $544.99.

Brian Beer of Aerial, NJ, won the second prize—a 6'6" G-Loomis, model GLX spinning rod ($350.00 value) sporting an Okuma, V-series, V-30 spinning reel ($149.99 value)—total value $499.99.

Proceeds from the raffle will benefit the South Jersey AIDS Alliance (SJAA), South Jersey's leader in the fight against HIV/AIDS. SJAA serves 2,500 people annually in Cumberland, Cape May, and Atlantic counties. For more information about its programs and services, please go to SJAA's website, www.sjaids.org.

#####

Manna by the Shore

United Way of Atlantic County

United Way of Atlantic County

South Jersey's Leader in the fight against AIDS