FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 5, 2012

WINNER OF SOUTH JERSEY AIDS ALLIANCE
RED TICKET 50/50 RAFFLE
ANNOUNCED

(Atlantic City, NJ) The name of one lucky winner of the first South Jersey AIDS Alliance Red Ticket Raffle was announced on May 30 at 6:00 p.m in their Atlantic City office at 19 Gordon's Alley.

Participants purchased tickets for $100 each in hopes of winning the 50/50 jackpot. The amount of money won was 50 % of all funds collected based on with the number of tickets sold. The agency sold over 140 tickets.

The winner, Jeanne Chiaradio from Ventnor City, NJ won $8,000 in total!

"I can't remember winning anything this big! This gives me an opportunity to do something I have wanted to do for quite some time. I lost my dear friend Kevin M. Cassario and my cousin Louis "Mug-z" Riccelli to AIDS. I will create two scholarship funds in their honor & memory, as giving back is always first on my mind. Thank you to all the people who participated and were a part of making this happen." said Jeanne Chiaradio, Winner.

All proceeds from the raffle will benefit the South Jersey AIDS Alliance.

South Jersey AIDS Alliance is a caring and compassionate human services organization dedicated to the fight against HIV/AIDS. South Jersey AIDS Alliance diverse and integrated programs and services span 1,300 square miles in Cumberland, Cape May and Atlantic counties which serve over 4,600 people annually to meet the challenges of the rapidly changing nature of the worldwide and local HIV/AIDS epidemic. While headquartered in Atlantic City, support centers are located in Millville, Wildwood, Bridgeton and Camden, NJ. SJAA is a United Way partner agency.
